BILL PAYNE CARES ABOUT PEOPLE

- He is a former businessman who, for 18 years, provided jobs for many Newark residents and was a member of the Federal Reserve Bank Small Business Council.
- He serves as a role model to a 13-year-old young man and has recruited 275 additional mentors from all walks of life for children in Newark schools.
- He served as an advocate for senior citizens displaced from their nursing home during last year's heat wave.
- He's a family man, life member of the NAACP and an active member of the Bethlehem Baptist Church in Newark.
- He's been endorsed by Organized Labor.

AS MAYOR, BILL PAYNE WILL

- Control taxes and water and sewer rates through efficient fiscal controls and the elimination of waste, mismanagement and corruption.
- Reduce crime by hiring additional police, returning desk-bound officers to neighborhood streets and improving police response time.
- Increase access to health care by expanding clinics throughout the neighborhoods; expand physician care in schools; and upgrade infant immunizations.
- Establish the Mayor's Office on Education Initiatives to develop strategies to improve our schools and effectively educate our children for the future.
- Establish an Office of Seniors Affairs to obtain senior citizens' input on issues concerning the entire city with an emphasis on the needs of seniors.
- Establish a Task Force for Youth Advocacy to develop school-based mentoring programs, recreation and other alternatives for youths.
- Return honesty, dignity, and integrity to City Hall and provide municipal services in a courteous and professional manner.
- Use the Office of the Mayor to bring about effective changes in city government.
- Develop partnerships with corporations to provide jobs for Newark residents.
